

High Capacity Feeder Module - Slide Motor

Slide Motor

The stepper slide motor performs two functions:

1. It slides the feed head (via the two slide crank arms) left to right to deliver a sheet to the takeaway rolls and then returns the feed head to the home position;
2. It alternately raises and releases the stack height arm via a cam on the outboard end of the motor shaft.

Home position sensors monitor the position of the feed heads.

SLIDE MOTOR